

1. Name of Panel
Inking Workshop

2. Description (the one that will most likely go into the program book)
The way of the pen. Gather experiences from Yad Mui formerly of Imbrium Studios on the trials and tribulations of producing book after book while learning along the way. There will be talk of everything from some basics behind inking well to stories of how to stay awake those long nights before a con while trying to make a deadline! Photocopied pencils and materials will be provided for practice. There is a small $5 fee to cover materials as well.

3. How long would you like the panel to be?
1 Hour

4. How big do you expect this panel to be (in people)?
Beyond standing room.. had to turn people away cause there was no room to ink.

5. What kind of room layout would you like?
Standard classroom style

6. What are the technical requirements of this panel?
None

7. What are the time conflicts or requests you'd like to make?
Not during cosplay and not on Sunday.
